

Press ReleaseAjanta employees Contribute Rs.1 cr. to Fight COVID 19

Ajanta Pharma's total commitment reaches Rs. 7 cr.

Mumbai, 27th May, 2020: Over 6300 Ajanta employees have voluntarily contributed Rs. 1 cr. from their salaries to fight Covid-19 pandemic in Maharashtra, as an expression of their solidarity with the government. In general employees have contributed their 1 day salary but there were few large hearted ones, who have even contributed 5-6 days salary. This takes total commitment of Ajanta Pharma to Rs. 7 cr. towards fight against COVID 19.

Earlier the Company had already committed Rs. 6 cr. for fight against the pandemic by contributing Rs. 2 cr. to PM CARES Fund and Rs. 4 cr. spent for providing assistance to state government, Municipal Corporation and other organisations working to fight the pandemic.

Ajanta Pharma is firmly standing with Govt. of India and State Governments in its efforts to overcome this pandemic. We appreciate their tireless efforts to contain the spread of COVID-19, while ensuring the availability of essentials to the nation.

We are also grateful from the core of our heart to the medical fraternity & other Covid warriors for their selfless efforts to protect the humanity.

Talking about the contribution Mr. Yogesh Agrawal, Managing Director, Ajanta Pharma said:

“Ajantaites continue to strive hard to maintain un-interrupted supply of life-saving drugs in India and across the world. Their contribution by voluntarily giving 1 day of salary to fight Covid-19 pandemic is yet another expression of our commitment and culture.”
